

2013 ABSTRACTS

2013 KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

3. Borrow R. The International Centre for Infectious Diseases (ICID), 4th April 2013, Hart House, University of Toronto, Canada. Advances in vaccination against serogroup B meningococcal disease.

4. Borrow R. Meningitis UK Vaccine Forum, 12th April 2013, Novotel, Bristol. Meningococcal group B vaccines – where we are now.

7. Borrow R. Neisseria Vaccines 2013, 19th to 24th May 2013, Varadero, Cuba. UK experience with pneumococcal meningitis and PCV.

9. Borrow R. Latin America Regional Roundtable meeting, Global Meningococcal Initiative, 25th to 26th June 2013, Golden Tulip Hotel, Sao Paulo, Brazil. 15 years after the introduction of the first conjugate MenC vaccine.

11. Borrow R. 12th European Meningococcal Disease Society (EMGM), 17th to 19th September 2013, Bad Loipersdorf, Austria. Impact of a quadrivalent conjugate (MenACWY-CRM) or a serogroup B (4CMenB) meningococcal vaccine on carriage in English university students.

15. Borrow R. Global Meningococcal Initiative, 2nd Summit Meeting, 17th to 18th November 2013, Westin Cape Town Hotel, Cape Town, South Africa. Lessons learnt from existing immunisation programmes in the EU.
16. Borrow R. Global Meningococcal Initiative, 2nd Summit Meeting, 17th to 18th November 2013, Westin Cape Town Hotel, Cape Town, South Africa. The state of the art in meningitis vaccine development, new MenB vaccine in Europe.

18. Findlow H. 31st Annual meeting of the European Society for Paediatric Infectious Diseases, 28th May 2013, Milan, Italy. Is a single dose of MenC in the first year of life enough?

19. Findlow J. Biomedical Science MSc programme, 14th January 2013, University of Bristol, Bristol. Neisseria meningitidis serogroup B vaccine advances.

22. Findlow J. Primary care and public health 2013, 22nd May 2013, Birmingham. Prevention of meningococcal disease- What’s on the Horizon?

23. Findlow J. 31st Annual meeting of the European Society for Paediatric Infectious Diseases, 28th May 2013, Milan, Italy. Use of conjugate vaccines for prevention of meningococcal disease in young children.

24. Findlow J. 12th European Meningococcal Disease Society (EMGM), 17th to 19th September 2013, Bad Loipersdorf, Austria. Monitoring meningococcal group vaccines following implementation.

26. Findlow J. Global Meningococcal Initiative, 2nd Summit Meeting, 17th to 18th November 2013, Westin Cape Town Hotel, Cape Town, South Africa. Focus on MenW: The risk of global spread of MenW and the importance of MenW after the control of MenA in Africa.

27. Findlow J. Global Meningococcal Initiative, 2nd Summit Meeting, 17th to 18th November 2013, Westin Cape Town Hotel, Cape Town, South Africa. Current diagnosis and surveillance of meningococcal disease across the globe.

29. Findlow J. Excellence in Paediatrics conference, 04th to 07th December 2013, Qatar. Meningococcal and pneumococcal disease – diagnosis and epidemiology.

32. Lucidarme J. 12th European Meningococcal Disease Society (EMGM), 17th to 19th September 2013, Bad Loipersdorf, Austria. Genotypic characterisation of diverse Neisseria lactamica isolates for subcapsular meningococcal vaccine antigens.